

JUNE 2009

REAL SIMPLE™

| life made easier |

warm-weather wines

"Summer is made for young, lively budget wines," says Joshua Wesson, a cofounder of Best Cellars and the senior director of wine, beer and spirits for A&P supermarkets. "On a hot day, you want a drink that's bright and vivid—not heavy or oaky, like some expensive aged bottles." Here, his tastiest picks.

$10

.... SEGURA VIUDAS

BRUT RESERVA CAVA

Bubbleheads will rejoice at this delicate yet creamy Spanish take on Champagne. Drink it with everything from corn dogs to sushi.