"A lively number with kick and effervescence. The nose is kind with light fruits and a whiff of chocolate. Plum and raspberry flavors are nice and accented by earthy spice, while the wine's texture and structure seem more than solid, given it's everyday price."

"Cherry red hue; steady bead. Shy aromas of cherry pastry and light apple notes. Sweet entry that morphs into simple cherry and berry flavors. Lacks depth on the close with tart lemon accents."

"Serious grape: how to preserve a glass of sparkling wine", featuring Segura Viudas Brut Rose

Washington Post

"Our bargain recommendation this week is the n.v. segura viudas brut rosé cava from Spain. This bright-reddish-pink bubbly, aged in the bottle for one to two years, has coffee-like aromas. Its old world earthiness and toastiness are well balanced by robust strawberry and raspberry flavors."

"Sip on something sexy like Segura Viudas Brut Rosé."

Chicago Magazine

"Valentine's day is no time to be outrageous, so don't buy your sweetheart a bottle of mescal with a worm in it. It's time for delicacy, so what better than a sparkling rosé? A nice one is the vibrant Segura Viudas Brut Rosé Spanish cava, which at $8 should leave you enough dough to throw in a box of chocolates."
